Third edition revized, with marginal alternative rules

BOSTON

Library Bureau 146 Franklin St.

1890

Note to revized edition

This edition differs from that of 1888, in containing marginal explanations, amplifications and variations from the previous rules, for which there is good authority. Variations are printed in italics, explanations and amplifications in roman type. Sample cards follow the text, not the margin.

Any criticisms or suggestions for making these rules more useful will be gladly received and carefully considered before printing a third edition, if sent to

Card catalog rules

These are the A. L. A. condensed rules made clearer on many points by re-wording and adding illustrations. They are for a double catalog of authors and mark titles on small cards (5 x 12½ cm), and of subjects on standard P size (7½ x 12½ cm). The changes are very slight in adapting the rules for a simple author catalog. For a dictionary catalog, there must be used a code of rules for subject headings.

To save detailed comparison we note that, except enlargements, these differ from the A. L. A. rules as printed some years ago, only in:

- 1e. We enter always under real name, omitting the exception that some books may go under pseudonyms.
- 1s. We follow the rule recommended as best in Cutter's rule 40, putting under the name of the place, local and municipal societies, tho the corporate name may not begin with that word.
- 2f. We give cities in their vernacular form instead of in English.
- 5m. We do not capitalize common nouns in German, but follow the rule of the Library of Congress.
- 4a. We give place and date at the end of the imprint entries instead of after edition, thus following the L. A. U. K. and Bodleian rules, the A. L. A. minority report, and the Library of Congress in putting these most important items in the most prominent place, instead of burying them back of minor items.
- 4c. We give edition in English rather than in language of the title.
- 9b. We use arabic figures for all numerals, unless roman are used on the title-page after names of rulers and popes.

The rules are in groups as follows:

- 0 Check Marks.
 1. Main Entry.
 2. Heading.
 3. Title.
 4. Imprint, Contents and Notes.
 5. Capitals, Spacing and Underscoring.
 6. Arrangement of authors and titles.
 7. Subject Cards.
 8. Colored Cards.
 9. Miscellaneous.
- S. C. refers to appended sample cards illustrating the rules.

O. — CHECK MARKS.

Put ORDER CHECKS on inner margin of first recto after title of v. 1.

- ✓a. "Not a duplicate." Initials of collator on order slip; or, if no order slip, as first check on book itself. If a duplicate, write "dup" and initials on book plate, if there is one; if not, in the upper left corner of front cover.
- b.* Source and cost of book in cents without $ sign (i. e. 145 not $1.45) after initials of duplicate collator, or, if none, as first check.
- ✓c. Pin hole in round part of last 9 in pagination shows that all order department routine is finished, and marks ownership.¹
- ✓d. Dot under first figure of accession number shows that all entries except call numbers are made on the accession book.²

Checks under first letter of words mean :

- ✓e. . . . main entry and joint authors.
- ✓f. — main entry for an anonymous book. Begins on second line of card.
- ✓g. . . added entry under editor, translator, commentator, publisher, title, etc.
- ✓h. . analytic author entry.
- ✓i. x cross reference from other forms of name, pseudonyms, initials, etc.

Other checks mean :

- ✓j. () omit on all cards.
- ✓k. [] omit on author card.
- ✓l. () series note. To follow imprint entries in (). S. C. 31.
- ✓m. No checks are made for biographical and subject entries.³ Other processes are checked as follows :
- ✓n. "Cards written." Abbreviated date and cataloger's initial on first recto, after cost ; and initial, with number of cards written, on bottom of main author card, the number of small cards at the left, and of large cards at the right of the guard hole. S. C. 2.⁴
- ✓o. "Cards revised." . above first letter of title-page.
- ✓p. "Classified." Class number on book-plate.
- ✓q. "Shelf listed." Book numbers on plate ; and if for loan department, book card written and pocketed.

¹ oe. Each library selects its own private mark. The "last 9" given in the rule is merely to suggest the method. Some libraries use always the same page; e. g. 49 or 33 or 65. This should be a page in the first 100, that it may apply to thin books. Others choose a more complicated rule, less easily discovered; e. g. the highest page made all of 3s, i. e. 3, 33 or 333, or the highest page in 1, 2, 3 order, i. e. 12, 123 or 1234.

³ om. Or indicate entries for criticism, biography and bibliography by underlining on main cards. See Rule 8, marginal note.

⁴ on. Or use initial, without number of cards written, on back of main author card, above the guard hole. Always write entries on the back of the card so that they can be read from the front of the drawer by simply tipping the card forward.

Card catalog rules

O r-s
I a-g

- ✓ r. "For inspection." Thread of proper color for each day.¹ M. Blue. Tu. Green. W. White. Th. Red. F. Fawn. St. Salmon.
- ✓ s. "Gilded." Numbers on backs.

1 Or. Or colored card in pocket or between leaves with name of day and explanation printed on it.

Checks a-d are made by order clerk; e-l by head cataloger as guide to carders.² All the checks except e-l, are made by the person doing the work, as a record, and must never be put on till it is finished.

2 Or as record of work done; omit j-l if title pages are not marked for carders.

I. — MAIN ENTRY.

Enter books under :

- ✓ a. Authors' SURNAMES if known. S. C. 1 and 2.
- b. EDITORS OF COLLECTIONS, S. C. 4 (also cataloging each separate item, if expedient). S. C. 24 and 25.
- ✓ c. COUNTRIES, CITIES, SOCIETIES, LIBRARIES, or other bodies responsible for their publication. S. C. 5.³
- ✓ d. Authors' INITIALS, when these only are known, putting last initial first. S. C. 18. Make also added entry under title. When author's name is found fill it in on all cards and write a new card referring from initials to full name. S. C. 19.
- ✓ e. PSEUDONYMS when real names cannot be found. Add pseud. 1 cm after, if sure the name is not real. S. C. 20. When the real name is found write it above the pseudonym on the cards (or re-write cards). S. C. 21. Refer from pseudonym to real name. If there is only one book under that pseudonym, its title and call number may be given on the card, S. C. 22, but, if there are several works, the real name only is given, S. C. 23,⁴ as the card must contain all the titles in the library or none.⁵
- ✓ f. FIRST WORD (not an article or serial number and omitting mottos or designations of series) of titles of anonymous books whose authors are still unknown, S. C. 15, and of periodicals. S. C. 28 and 29. (A book is anonymous when the author's name is not on the title-page, — see Cutter's Rules p. 10, — or in government publications, on pages following the title-page.) When author's name is found, pencil it on title-page and enter on author line of cards, putting [] around the name, and anon. 1 cm after, S. C. 16, making also a new card with added entry under title followed by author's name in []. S. C. 17.⁶

3 1c. After names of all except very prominent cities add the name of country or state in (); e. g. Boston (1 ng.), Utica (N. Y.); also, if necessary to distinguish, add (state), (city) or (county); e. g. N. Y. (state).

4 1c. Or in case of prominent pseudonyms, like George Eliot, add brief titles and call numbers of all the works, using one line to each entry.

5 1c. Make added title entries for all pseudonymous books.

Enter :

- ✓ g. COMMENTARIES with text, and TRANSLATIONS, like the original, with added entry under commentator or translator; S. C. 6, 7, and 8, but commentaries without the text, under commentator only, tho classed with the original; e. g. Coleridge's "Notes and lectures

6 1f. Or for anonymous biographies whose author is still unknown, make green biography card the main card for author catalog. (see 26, S. C. 40), and make added title entry if needed.

upon Shakspeare" is entered under Coleridge, tho classed with Shakspeare.

- ✓ h. BIBLE, or any part of it, including the Apocrypha, under editor, translator, etc.; e. g. Alford, II: ed. Greek testament with revised text; entered under Alford in form of S. C. 4, or, if no editor, under the first word of title, writing no author card; e. g. "Das neue testament" to be entered like an anonymous book. S. C. 15. Most libraries enter all bibles under the word Bible. This would duplicate in the author catalog the group under Bible in the subject catalog, to which reference is made from the word Bible in the author catalog. If only an author catalog is made, it should include all bibles under that word.

- ✓ i. TALMUD, KORAN, VEDAS, and other sacred books under those words on author line, making added entries under editor, translator, &c. S. C. 34.¹

1 li. In like manner enter other sacred or well-known anonymous books under their best known title; e. g. Beowulf, Nibelungenlied, Roland.

- j.* ACADEMICAL THESIS under respondent or defender, unless præses is clearly the author.

- ✓ k. Books having MORE THAN ONE AUTHOR under the first named in title, with added entries under each of the others. S. C. 13 and 14. If only two or three authors, include their names in the main entry; e. g. "Roe, R.: Doe, J.: and Smith, D.:"; if more than three, enter under the first "and others"; e. g. "Roe, R.: and others," and make an added entry under each of the others; e. g. "Doe, J.: Roe, R.: and others," "Smith, D., Roe, R.: and others." Write each author's full name only once and that on his own author card. S. C. 13 and 14. Joint editors, translators, etc., have separate added entries. S. C. 9. Parties in a debate are treated like joint authors.

- ✓ l. TRIALS of crown and criminal cases under defendant; e. g. Burr, Aaron, Trial for treason; civil cases under the parties in the suit, treated like joint authors; e. g. Vanderbilt, Cornelius, vs. Livingston, J. R.; marine cases under the ship; e. g. Blaireau (ship); PLEAS, DECISIONS, etc., under the author, with added entries as below. A plea printed separately goes under the lawyer making the plea, with added entries under the party or parties in the suit; e. g. Smith's argument in case of prize steamer Peterhoff, is entered under Smith, with added entry under Peterhoff. Decisions published separately go under court, with added entries for parties in the suit.

- ✓ m. CATALOGS of private collections under owner; catalogs of public collections by rule 1 c. Make added entry under compiler, e. g. Daniel, G: Catalogue of [his] library; Boston Athenæum, Catalogue of the library [by C. A. Cutter]; with added entry under Cutter.

- ✓ n. ALUMNI proceedings, etc., and local COLLEGE SOCIETIES under the college; e. g. Yale college — Skull and bones society. Enter their publications under heading above with reference from Skull and bones society. Chapters of FRATERNITIES under name of fraternity, with added entry under the college; e. g. Psi Upsilon fraternity.
- ✓ o. NOBLEMEN under their¹ titles with reference from family name. If the family name² is decidedly better known, enter under that with reference from title; e. g. Romney, H: Sidney, 1st earl of; S. C. 36, but (the only exception for Englishmen), Bacon, Francis, viscount St. Albans. Monk, G. H. Duke of Albermarle
 - 1 lo. highest
 - 2 lo. or a lower title
- ✓ p. ECCLESIASTICAL DIGNITARIES, unless popes or sovereigns, under their surnames, e. g. Newman, J: H: card. Butler, Jos. bp.
- ✓ q. SOVEREIGNS, e. g. Napoleon 1, (except Greek and Roman, e. g. Justinianus 1, Flavius Anicius); ruling princes; Oriental writers; popes, e. g. Leo 13; friars, e. g. Hyacinthe, Père (C: Loyson); persons canonized, e. g. Ambrosius, St., and all others known only by their first names, under the first name.
- ✓ r. MARRIED WOMEN, and other persons who have changed their names, under the last well-known form, with reference from other forms. Enter Helen Hunt under Jackson, Mrs Helen Maria (Fiske) Hunt, with references from Hunt, and H. H.³
- ✓ s. A SOCIETY, UNDER FIRST WORD (not an article) of its corporate name, with reference from any other name by which it is known, specially the place if it has head-quarters and is often called by that name, e. g. Statistical society of London, with reference from London statistical society: UNDER PLACE, local societies, e. g. N. Y. Shakespeare society; academies of the European continent and South America, e. g. Berlin akademie der wissenschaften; municipal institutions, viz. libraries, e. g. Boston — Public library; galleries, e. g. N. Y. metropolitan museum of art; public schools, e. g. Cincinnati — Education, Board of; and municipal corporations, e. g. Minneapolis — Health, Board of: UNDER THE STATE, state historical societies and state colleges, e. g. Wisconsin historical society, California university.
 - 3 1r. Or if another form is commonly used, make added entries, as in case of prominent pseudonyms. See 1e, 1st marginal note.
- ✓ t. CYCLOPEDIAS, DIRECTORIES and ALMANACS, under title, like a periodical, S. C. 28 and 29, making added entry for editor, publisher, partial title, or any form under which they may be well known, e. g. enter Appleton's cyclopædia under American Societies which have changed their names. Enter under latest name.

encyclopædia with added editor entry for Ripley and Dana, and a similar one for Appleton, pub. But if it is the work of an individual, e. g. Larousse, enter under author's name with added entry under title.

- ✓ u. A PERIODICAL which is the organ of a society or club, under its name, like S. C. 28 and 29, with added entry under name of society, unless it be the regular proceedings or transactions, in which case enter it under the society, with added entry under title, like S. C. 11; e. g. Library journal as periodical, with added entry under A. L. A.; but Quarterly journal of the Geological soc. of London, under the society's name. In case of change of name of periodicals, enter the whole under the earlier name, making note of the change on the main cards. Make added entry under the new name, giving imprint of the part covered by it, referring on the same card to the old name.

- ✓ 1 iv. Or if series is better known by title, enter under title, with reference from editor; e. g. American statesmen, with reference from Morse.
- ✓ 2. SERIES under editor, if known, S. C. 30, with reference from title; if unknown, under title, e. g. Bampton lectures.¹ For some series a series card need not be written, e. g. Clarendon press series. Give two lines to each item of contents on series card, beginning with series number between red lines, thus giving space for both class and book numbers. S. C. 30.

- ✓ 2 1w. in red ink
- ✓ 3 1w. See also S. C. 38-40.
- ✓ 4 1w. See also 8b and 1f, marginal note.
- ✓ 5 1w. Or for an autobiography, e. g. Grant's Memoirs, repeat the name on second line of subject card, like S. C. 41.
- ✓ 6 1w. Or write 13th cent. or 1430? using "fl." only when otherwise the date would be ambiguous.
- ✓ w. A BIOGRAPHY under its author, putting the full name of its subject on the upper line of the subject card, followed by the dates of his birth and death. S. C. 26.³ See also 7 f.⁴ If author's name is not known, leave second line blank, and fill in if found later. An autobiography, e. g. Grant's Memoirs, is written like a simple subject and author card, like S. C. 1 and 2, except that the full name and dates are added on the subject card; e. g. Grant, Ulysses Simpson, 18th pres. of U. S. 1822-1885. Diaries and letters are considered autobiographical. When it is found that authorities differ, affix ? to the date used; but unless in special cases do not attempt to settle the discrepancy. If the choice is between only two dates, both may be given, e. g. bJ844 or 6. Where exact dates are unknown the time when the author flourished may be given, e. g. "fl. 13th cent." or "fl. 1430?" using the ? instead of circa or about for approximate dates.

- ✓ x. Make added entries, called ANALECTICALS, for distinct parts of books; enter under author of part analyzed, and give brief title and date of main work. See 4r. S. C. 24 and 25.

- ✓ y. Analyze a LIFE INCLUDED in another work by an author card for the author of the life and a subject card for its subject. S. C. 27.⁸ The writer of an "included," who also edits the whole work, has no author analytical, as the editor card is enough.

7 1y. and a green biography card. S. C. 40.

8 1. See also 8b.

Card catalog rules

I Z
2 a-c

1 z. Make ADDED ENTRIES under titles of all novels and plays, and all other striking titles, S. C. 10 and 11; specially noticeable words in titles, S. C. 12; translators, commentators, noted illustrators, editors of books and periodicals, S. C. 6, 7 and 8; and make REFERENCES from pseudonyms, initials, and from an ecclesiastical title when that and not the family name appears on the title-page. (e. g. [Andrews,] Lancelot, bp. of Winchester. Since Andrews does not appear on the title-page, make reference from Winchester.) If a book is well known by any title (e. g. running, half, or binder's title) differing from the title-page, make added entry under this other title. S. C. 12. If an author is commonly known by a name less full than that used for the main entry, refer from the shorter to the full entry, e. g. make Müller, F; Max, the main entry, and write a reference card thus:—Müller, Max, see Müller, F; Max.¹ Make added entry or reference in every other case when needed for the ready finding of the book.

1 1z. Or omit this sentence and see 2a, 1st marginal note.

2. — HEADING.

2 a. Give author's NAME IN FULL, and in the VERNACULAR, with reference from any other form by which it is commonly known; but give the Latin form when better known, with reference from the vernacular; e. g. Estienne, H¹, with reference from Stephanus, but Grotius, Hugo, with reference from Groot, Hugo van. S. C. 35.²

2 2a. Or enter under a shorter generally used form of a name with reference from fuller form, if the fuller form alphabets it where it would not be sought by the reader; e. g. make Müller, Max, the main entry and write a reference card thus:—Müller, Friedrich Max, see Müller, Max.

Enter sovereigns under the English form; e. g. William (not Wilhelm) I, king of Prussia.³

3 2a. Or enter sovereigns under the vernacular form; e. g. Wilhelm I, king of Prussia; and under the English form, William I, king of Prussia, make added entries with brief titles and call numbers, one line to each entry; or in biography entries, two lines.

In heading and notes if there is equal authority for more than one SPELLING, prefer the shorter; e. g. abate, not abbate, Shakspeare, not Shakespeare.⁴

4 2a. Spell the names of societies, etc. as in their publications; e. g. N. Y. Shakespeare society, with reference, if necessary, from other forms.

For full names and dates of Greek and Latin authors follow Smith's Dictionary of Greek and Roman biography.

5 2b. or colon abbreviations which mean more and are just as brief; follow same rule for autobiography. Use colon abbreviations only where initials would otherwise be given. Write all surnames in full on subject card; e. g. Shaftesbury, A. A. Cooper, 1st earl of; Jackson, Mrs H. M. (Fiske) Hunt. On author card give author's full name, written out; e. g. Beecher, Henry Ward, Allen, Joseph Henry.

2 b. On subject cards write out author's FORE-NAME if only one, e. g. Phillips, Wendell; if more than one give simply initials,⁵ e. g. Beecher, H: W., except in case of autobiography. See 1 w. The colon abbreviations are used for both full name and initial, H: meaning Henry and being just as brief as H. in giving initials. On author cards give author's full name either written out or in the "Library abbreviations," e. g. Emerson, Ralph Waldo, Beecher, H: Ward, Allen, Jos. H:

2 c. Enter English and French surnames beginning with PREFIX (except the French de and d') under the prefix; in other languages under the word following, e. g. La Fontaine, Voltaire, F. M. A. de, Göthe, J; W. von, Lennep, Jacob van, but enter foreign names anglicized under prefix, e. g. De Peyster, Da Ponte, Van Nostrand.

e. Add designations (such as TITLES OF HONOR, DATES OF BIRTH AND DEATH, RESIDENCE, etc.) to distinguish writers of the same name. Omit the article with such added titles, e. g. abate not il abate, abbé not l'abbé. Always add titles that are part of the person's usual designation, as Rev., Gen., etc.; or a sobriquet, e. g. Jackson, T: Jonathan, called Stonewall, Stewart, J: called Walking. Do not bracket such added titles. Distinguishing dates follow title affixes, and precede the affixes, ed., tr., etc., e. g. Smith, W: LL.D. 1814— tr. Anon. follows distinguishing dates and the words ed., tr., etc.

Dates of birth and death are so compact and useful a distinction that they should be put on the cards in all cases if the cataloger has them before him, and should be looked up whenever there is question of identity between similar names.

¹*i.* On ADDED ENTRY cards, write author's name on the second line, with full FORE-NAME if only one, with initials if more than one, like the form for heading on subject cards. Rule 2b. S. C. 8, 9, 11, 12, 22, 33. On REFERENCE CARDS, write author's name on the second line, in full. S. C. 19, 23, 35, 36.

j. For GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS &c. use the official name, inverting, if necessary to alphabetize by the distinctive word; e. g. France — Travaux publics, Ministère des. S. C. 5.¹

2 2l. Bracket all names and parts of names not found on the title-page, except in red ink subject headings. S. C. 26-27, 38, 40-41, 43-44, 46.

3. — TITLE.

- ✓ a. Make title an EXACT COPY of title-page, neither corrected, translated, nor in any way altered; but omit mottos, honorary titles, repetitions, and fore-names except initials of editors, translators, etc., and any other matter not essential. Indicate all omissions on main cards (except initial article in English, and author's name and titles in usual position), by three dots ... which take the place of all punctuation. S. C. 5, 6, 13, etc.¹ Titles of books specially valuable for antiquity or rarity give in full, with all practicable precision. Copy exactly the phraseology and spelling of the title. For spelling of heading see 2 a. Punctuation must be supplied if omitted on the title-page and must sometimes be changed on account of omissions or to reduce the title to a single sentence.
- ✓ b. Indicate MISPRINTS, or odd spellings, by three dots underneath, rather than by the common [sic], e. g. Kansas not Kanzas [sic].
- c.* Follow old interchange of U AND V, I AND J, only in books before 1600 A. D. S. C. 6 and 7.
- ✓ d. PUNCTUATE by Cutter's Rules, No. 163, and Bigelow's Punctuation.
- ✓ e. Supply in [] in Eng. any ADDITIONS needed to make the title clear, e. g. Examination of the president's [T: Jefferson] message.²
- ✓ f. Do not translate into the vernacular proper names occurring in FOREIGN FORMS in the title, e. g. "ed. a J. G. Amesio," not "ed. a J: W: Ames," but give the vernacular form as the heading of the reference card. S. C. 8.
- ✓ g. TRANSLITERATE by A. L. A. rules, titles in foreign characters, except Greek. If the title does not show it, state language of the book in []. S. C. 32.³
- ✓ h. In case of two title-pages in different languages, use the language in which the book is written, if that has the Roman alphabet; otherwise use the title-page having the Roman alphabet, e. g. when a book has both GREEK AND LATIN TITLES, give the Latin. If the book itself is in two languages and has two titles in the Roman alphabet, use the first. ACCENT words in Greek, French, etc., regularly, though the title-page be all in capitals without accents. S. C. 10 and 11.
- ✓ i. After title specify APPENDIX of single volumes, e. g. [apx. p. 320-346], but only in exact work.
- ✓ j. Mention frequency of publication of PERIODICALS, e. g. Contemporary review; [monthly]. Do not repeat if mentioned in the title. S. C. 28 and 29.
- ✓ k. Begin PERIODICALS on author cards at left-hand red line for first two lines, using full lines for the rest; on subject cards, begin at 1 3a. Omit honorary titles, author's name and usually initial article in English; put serial number, designation of series and imprint information in imprint or series note; give forenames of editors, translators, etc., following rule for subject heading; see 2b; indicate all other omissions on main cards, as mottos, repetitions, and non-essential matter by three dots ... which take the place of all punctuation.

2 3e. Or brief additions may be made in the vernacular.

there are four or five pagings, add the shorter so as not to have more than three groups of figures, usually the main paging preceded and followed by the totals of the shorter pagings. If there are more than five pagings do not count, but write v. p. [various paging], except in exact work. If the book is unpaged, write unp. and for valuable or very thin books count and add pages in []. Give paging of last recto when its verso is unpaged, but last recto unpaged, if printed is + [1]. S. C. 3.

Disregard ADVERTISING pages except when paged in consecutively. Do not specify folded leaves paged with the rest, except in exact work.

Accept the paging of the book unless there is an obvious misprint, e. g. the first page may be numbered 5, but do not deduct the four omitted pages. In books which are only portions of other books give inclusive pages; e. g. p. 633 — 742.

Write f. (or leaves) instead of p. where the book is foliod, i. e. numbered by leaves instead of pages; e. g. 75 + 260 f.

If columns not pages are numbered, give columns and in [] number of pages; e. g. 16 p. + 3202 col. [801 p.].

If two or more volumes are PAGED CONTINUOUSLY, give number of volumes and pages in imprint; e. g. 2 v. 21 + 360 p., and add in a note "Paged continuously."

- e. When VOLUMES of a set are missing, give number of volumes in complete set; and specify missing volumes in pencil note, which can be erased as soon as they are secured. S. C. 28 and 29.

- g. If a book is INCOMPLETE and no more will be published, give in the imprint what has appeared, adding in a note "no more published," e. g. American archives.
- h. Disregard ENGRAVED AND ILLUSTRATED TITLE-PAGES except in exact work. If no title-page was published, write in imprint n. t-p. [no title-page]. S. C. 3. If the title-page is otherwise missing, add in note t-p. w. [title-page wanting]. S. C. 13.
- i. Except in exact work, give number of PLATES, PORTRAITS, ILLUS-TRATIONS, etc., only when on the title-page or quickly ascertainable.

Portraits, plates, maps, etc., included in the regular paging are simply illustrations.¹

¹ 4i. In serials and transactions do not distinguish portraits, plates, etc., but use simply "il." and this only when the serial is usually illustrated.

j. If there is an ATLAS or volumes of PLATES, write, e. g. v. 1—12 O. and Atlas F, or if they are of the same size, v. 1—12 and Atlas O.

k. If volumes of a set have DIFFERENT SIZES specify volumes of each size; e. g. 12 v. (v. 1—4 O, v. 5—12 Q).

If a bound volume of pamphlets has parts of different sizes, give actual size of each part on its own cards; in accession book give size of outside of bound book.

l. Give first PLACE OF PUBLICATION, unless another is known to be the true place, or the book actually was printed in more than one place, when both are to be given.

m. Give EXTREME DATES where the volumes of a set differ, and also date of v. 1. if later than first date; e. g. 1834—49 [v. 1, '38]

If the copyright dates also differ, write, e. g. 1834—49; [v. 1 '38] [^c1824—31]. Give all these peculiarities of date only on the main author and subject cards. & col. eds. on

n. Give PLACE AND PUBLISHER'S NAME in language of title. S. C. 6 and others; corrections and additions in English, enclosed in []; e. g. Camb. [Eng.], or Camb. [Mass]. Give publisher's name for Bibles. & books pub. before 1600

o. Use only the ABBREVIATIONS in the printed "Library abbreviations compiled by Melvil Dewey."

p. Write FULL IMPRINT only on the main subject and main author card. For joint authors, and other added entries, the date is sufficient. S. C. 13 and 14.

✓ CONTENTS AND NOTES.

q. Give NOTES (in English) and CONTENTS of volumes in smaller letters (generally only on subject card), when necessary properly to describe the work. Notes about the author and on imperfections in the copy go on both cards, other notes only on subject card.² Begin notes, except note abbreviations, with capitals, starting on second line after imprint and indenting like title.

r. In ANALYTICAL REFERENCES when the article is independently paged, give full imprint of the analyzed part, and in () write "in" and title of main work. S. C. 24. If paging is not distinct, write in () "see," and title, and date of main work, with pages where analyzed matter is found. S. C. 25.

s. SERIES NOTE follows date on main cards in ().³ Always specify volume of series if known. S. C. 31. For "series" of periodicals, etc., see Imprint 4a.

- ✓7. In contents and series begin each separate entry on a new line and keep all entries to the right of the right hand red line, putting volume numbers, if they occur, between the red lines.¹
- ✓11. Note MS ANNOTATIONS if they seem to add to the value of the book.

1 4t. For fullness of author's name follow rule for subject headings. See 2b.

5. — CAPITALS.

These are substantially the rules adopted by the Harvard college library:

- In titles, notes, and whatever goes on the body of a card, capitalize as follows:
 - ✓a. The FIRST WORD of every sentence, of every title quoted, S. C. 15 and of every alternative title introduced by or. S. C. 10. In quoting titles like the Nation, the Times, etc., capitalize the word following the article and not the article, and do this even in defiance of quotation marks; e. g. extracted from the Times, extracted from "the Nation." This rule allows capitals to the Bible, the Scriptures, the Book of Mormon, etc.
 - ✓b. Names of PERSONS.
 - ✓c. EPITHETS standing as substitutes for PERSONAL names: e. g. the Pretender. The epithets, His Majesty, Sa Majesté, His Excellency, etc., when not followed by the personal name or by the titles king, president, etc., are substitutes for a personal name, and should be capitalized. But when followed by the personal name, or by the title, such epithets should usually be omitted; e. g. "the presence of His Majesty at that time," "the coronation of... George III.," "the favor of... the king." When these epithets occur with superfluous adjectives the latter should be omitted; e. g. not "His Most Glorious Majesty," but "His... Majesty." The rule allows capitals to Trinity, the Deity, the Creator, etc., but do not capitalize holy, sacred, divine, etc., except in Holy Ghost, Holy Spirit.
 - ✓d. Mr, Mrs, Miss, Dr, Sir, Lord, Lady, Monsieur, Madame, Mademoiselle, Signor, Don, Herr, Frau, used as PREFIXES to names of persons.
 - ✓e. The Great, the Lion-Hearted, le Grand, der Grosse, etc., used as AFFIXES to names of persons.
 - ✓f. Names of PLACES. These often consist of an individual name joined to a generic name. In such cases capitalize only the former; e. g. state of Connecticut, Berkshire county, city of Boston, Susquehanna river, Catskill mountains, Arctic ocean, south Pacific, east Tennessee, tropic of Cancer, Arctic regions, equator. But there are some cases in which the generic name has come to be so closely united with the individual name that both should be capitalized ; e. g. Niagara Falls, White Mountains, Mont Blanc, Lake Erie, Zuyder Zee, North Carolina, Lundy's Lane, Van Diemen's Land, North Pole, Bull Run, Fall River, Mound City, the steamer "City of Boston," etc. It is not generally difficult to distinguish between these two cases. Ability to use the individual name by itself will usually afford a safe criterion ; e. g. we can say "the Catskills," but not "the Whites."

- [✓] g. EPITHETS standing as substitutes for names of PLACES ; e. g. the South, the Orient, United Kingdom, etc.
- [✓] h. Arbitrary, un-descriptive, fanciful, outlandish, or otherwise purely INDIVIDUAL EPITHETS occurring in the name of a society, corporation, or building ; e. g. Vulture insurance company, Pi Eta society, Globe bank, Star and Garter inn, Adelphi, Star chamber, Excelsior mine, Court of Oyer and Terminer, Chrestomathic day-school, Old Bailey. Capitalize names of societies or collective bodies, and write Royal society, Board of trade, House of representatives, First congregational church, Harvard college, American academy of arts and sciences, State department, Oxford university, Parliament, College of physicians and surgeons, etc.
- [✓] i. The pronoun I ; the interjection O ; A. D., B. C., in dates ; D. D., M. D., etc. ; but not ms., mss.
- [✓] j. In English and Latin, but not in other languages, capitalize also ADJECTIVES derived from names of PERSONS and PLACES ; e. g. English, Platonic, etc.¹ This rule allows the capitalization of many names of parties and sects which may be regarded as adjectival nouns derived from proper names, as Lutheran, Arminian, Jesuit, Christian, Buddhist, etc. Otherwise do not capitalize such words ; e. g. catholic, episcopal, puritan, whig, democrat, quaker, unitarian, etc.
- [✓] k. Names of the MONTHS, DAYS of the week, and HOLIDAYS, but only the individual part of the name ; e. g. Shrove Tuesday, Candlemas, 4th of July, Fast day. Capitalize also Advent, Lent, Lord's Supper.
- [✓] l. Pope, Saint, Bp., King, Earl, Capt., Rev., Hon., Prof., Judge, Gov., etc., used as PREFIXES to names of persons ; e. g. King George III., Earl Russell, Bp. Colenso, Secretary Fish. Otherwise do not capitalize such words ; e. g. the king of England, the earl of Derby, the bishop of Lincoln, the secretary of war.
- [✓] m. Except in the cases specified above, use SMALL LETTERS exclusively, tho local usage require capitals, e. g. nouns in German. But do not use capitals if local usage is small letters, e. g. names of months in French.

SPACING AND UNDERSCORING.

- ✓ n. Leave SPACE of one centimeter in heading, between author's name and words or dates affixed, but write dates on biography cards at the end of the line. S. C. 26 and 27.¹ The first line (or more if needed, S. C. 13 and 14) is reserved for the author's name, and is left blank if the author is not known. S. C. 15.

1 5n. This space may be shortened to avoid over-running the line, or follow the same rule for dates on biography cards.

The title begins on the next blank line tho there be vacant space on the author line.

✓ But periodicals are entered on the author line. S. C. 28 and 29.

- ✓ o. Leave also one centimeter between title and edition, between edition and the rest of the imprint, between size and place, and between date and series note, or other matter following date on the same line.²

2 5o. If space would come at beginning of line, leave no space. On all secondary cards and in series, notes, etc. leave 1-2 centimeter in all similar places; e. g. on second line of editor, translator, biography cards, etc. and between title and date, title and volume, etc.

- ✓ p. On main cards SINGLY UNDERSCORE secondary entries and references; on secondary cards DOUBLY UNDERSCORE main entry, but do not underscore secondary entries or references.³ S. C. 13 and 14. For joint authors of series singly underscore the first in series note on main cards, and the others on series card.

3 5p. unless they do not appear on main cards.

✓ 6. — ARRANGEMENT.

- ✓ a. SURNAMES when used alone precede the same names with fore-names; initials of fore-names precede fully written fore-names beginning with the same initials, (e. g. Brown; Brown, J. L.; Brown, Ja.).

- ✓ b. PREFIXES M^c and Mc, S., St., Ste., Messrs., Mr and Mrs, arrange as if written in full, Mac, Sanctus, Saint, Sainte, Messieurs Mister, and Mistress.

- ✓ c. WORKS of an author arrange thus:—

1. Collected works.
2. Partial collections.
3. Single works, alphabetically by first word of title.

- ✓ d. Alphabet in order of English alphabet.

- ✓ e. German ae, oe, ue always write ä, ö, ü, and arrange as a, o, u; e. g. Göthe, not Goethe. But in case of several surnames which are alike except the umlaut, arrange the umlauted after the plain letter; e. g. all the Müllers after all the Mullers, W. Muller coming before A. Müller.

- ✓ f. Names of PERSONS precede similar names of PLACES, and places precede TITLES, e. g.

Washington, G:

Washington, (D. C.).

Washington Adams in England. (Title of book.)

See also Cutter's Rules, No. 169-196.

✓7.—SUBJECT CARDS.

- ✓a. In general write subject cards like main author cards with author's name on upper line, followed by title and imprint. Name of subject entry is not written (except where divisions more minute than in the printed classification are introduced alphabetically under final class no. see 7 m), but subject is shown by class number in upper left corner of card. Note the following points of difference:—

- ✓b. SIZE. Use P size [7.5 x 12.5 cm] for subject cards, I size [5 x 12.5 cm] for author and title cards. [This distinction in size is made at Columbia, but is not essential. Many prefer to use P size for all cards. See Library notes 1: 34⁶.]¹

1 7b. If P size is used for author cards, indent them like subject cards, as the larger card makes it less important to use the left margin, and there are practical advantages in having author and subject cards alike.

- ✓c. FULLNESS OF ENTRY. On subject cards abbreviate author's forename and give a fuller title. Rule 2b. S. C. 1, 6, etc.

- ✓d. MARGIN. On subject cards leave all space at left of first vertical line free for stamping cross reference subject numbers.

- e. PERIODICALS. Indent subject card of a periodical by Rule 3k. S. C. 28 and 29.

- ✓f. BIOGRAPHY. Add name of subject of life with date of birth and death on upper line.² See Rules 1w, 1y, and S. C. 26, 27, and 38.

2 7f. in red ink.

- ✓g. STAMP call number of every book (thus indicating both its subject and location on shelves) on all its cards; class number first, and directly under this its book number, in blue ink in upper left corner of card, on first and second lines of main cards, and on second and third of cross reference subject cards. Stamp cross reference number in red ink on upper line of reference card, and on fourth, and (if more than one reference) on succeeding lines of main subject card. S. C. 27, 42, 43, 45, 47, 48, 49, 50, and 51. Put no cross reference numbers on small cards. Add vol. number in blue ink to all cards referring to only part of a set. S. C. 24, 25, and 27.

There are three forms of cross reference subject cards, each stamped according to Rule 7g.

- ✓h. GENERAL; where the book as a whole treats of more than one subject. Make reference card for the less important subject, giving simply author, brief title, and date. S. C. 48 and 49.

- ✓i. ANALYTICAL. This may be biographical, like S. C. 27, or analysis of any other subject of importance. S. C. 50 and 51.

- ✓j. INDEPENDENT; pamphlets or books on different subjects bound in one volume. Card each independently, i. e. subject and

Card catalog rules

7 k-m

author cards, with full imprint for each part. Locate book by most important subject, and treat cards of this part as main cards, stamping subject cards for other parts as cross reference cards. Do not stamp these cross reference numbers on main card.

- ✓ k. ARRANGE subject cards numerically by class numbers, and under each number by authors, disregarding book numbers; except for colleges [378.4-9] and authors to whom a special class number is assigned in literature and philosophy, which arrange under each class number, by book numbers instead of by authors.
- l. GENEALOGY. In 929.2 alphabet by subject instead of author, writing subject name, e. g. Grant family, on the top line, as in S. C. 26.
- m. USE "SPECIAL TOPIC card," where an alphabetical arrangement of minute subjects is desirable under the class number; e. g. 974.41 means history of Berkshire county, Mass.; for history of several towns in that county, write name of each town in red ink above author's name on its subject card, thus making it a "special topic card;" arrange these alphabetically by red ink — special topics at end of author arrangement under class number, and put a "special topic guide," S. C. 47, containing a list of these towns, at beginning of 974.41.

8. — COLORED CARDS.

To make certain classes of entries more prominent, use cards of distinctive colors for both main and analytical cards.¹

COLORED CARDS IN AUTHOR CATALOG.

This makes a name catalog in place of a strict author catalog.

- ✓ a. BLUE cards for author BIBLIOGRAPHY. S. C. 46. Use these in name catalog instead of subject cards under 012 in subject catalog. Put in 012 a card with this note: — "For bibliography of any special author see blue cards standing first under his name in author catalog."²
- ✓ b. GREEN cards for BIOGRAPHY. S. C. 40 and 41. These duplicate subject biography cards (S. C. 26, 27, 38), but are arranged in the single alphabet of the name catalog, where they may be found without knowing anything but name. The subject cards show biography of any class, though readers know no names.

1 s. Indicate these on main cards by underlining the names under which these entries are made, or by a note, if necessary.

2 s_a or let these duplicate in name catalog the white subject cards under 012 of subject catalog.

COLORS IN SUBJECT CATALOG.

e. BLUE cards for BIBLIOGRAPHY.

1 sc. For fullness of author's name follow rule for subject headings. See 2b.

2 sc. Or let these duplicate white subject cards in 016 and its subdivisions. Enter, e. g. a bibliography of mathematics on a white card and arrange in 016.51; also on a blue card and arrange in 510.

3 sc. For fullness of biography follow rule for subject headings, see 2b; give only surname of author.

1. "BEST BOOK" cards to show most desirable treatises or articles, both popular and exhaustive. S. C. 45.¹ Arrange at beginning of subject, preceded only by special topic guide, if any.

2. "SUBJECT BIBLIOGRAPHY" cards. These take the place of white subject cards in 016 and its subdivisions. Enter e. g. a bibliography of mathematics on a blue card in black ink, in form of an ordinary subject card and arrange after "best book" card, if any, in 510.²

f. GREEN cards for BIOGRAPHY. S. C. 42.³ These are practically "best book" cards on biography illustrative of the subject. Enter on green cards only the best lives, as full lists can be found under 920. Arrange after blue bibliographical cards and before white cards.

9. — MISCELLANEOUS.

- ✓ a. In adding another entry to a card, — indicates omission of heading — — of heading and title. Add later to earlier EDITIONS in this way, giving full imprint of second and part of title if it differs from the earlier edition. S. C. 32 and 33.
- ✓ b. Use ARABIC FIGURES for all numbers, but in the title follow the form given after names of rulers and popes. S. C. 26. Thus, use figures for numeral adjectives and nouns in any language; but not for numeral adverbs e. g. "printed for the 1st time," but "now first printed."
- ✓ c. Confine author, and subject entry if possible, without omitting important information, to ONE CARD each.
- ✓ d. When more space is needed, number and tie on "EXTENSION CARDS" and indent them as if all on one deep card, leaving space for call number in the upper left corner of author cards. On series cards only, give an abbreviated heading on the back to identify if misplaced.

Book numbers. The letters (or letters and figures) on the second line of the left upper corner of the sample cards are the book numbers as used at Columbia. This determines order on the shelves, but does not affect the card catalog rules. For explanation see shelf list rules.

If preferred titles (of periodicals, anonymous and other books widely known by their title) may be scattered through the name catalog instead of being kept in a separate alphabet. No change whatever is required in the cards. Cards can be found quicker if names and titles are kept separate, as on an average only half as many cards occur under any word, but careless readers may look in the wrong alphabet or forget that there are two. If they are kept separate, guard against mistakes by very plain labels on each catalog.

The subject catalog is to be used with the printed index. Readers need not know anything of its arrangement. This Relativ Index has some 20,000 topics plainly printed for the easiest possible reference. Each is followed by a simple arabic number. Reference to the subject catalog, arranged in simple numerical order, shows the library's resources in that topic. This reference is found by long trial to be much quicker than to the common catalog arranged alphabetically by topics. This enables us to combine the great advantages of classed and dictionary catalogs.

For full explanations see preface to "Decimal Classification and Relativ Index by Melvil Dewey," published by Library Bureau, 146 Franklin St., Boston.

MONTHS.

Ja F Mr Ap My Je Jl Ag S O N D

DAYS.

Sn M Tu W Th F St

Use in this order "W 9 S 85" for "Wed. Sept. 9th, 1885."

Do not use abbreviations for days and months on catalog cards.

FIGURES.

Never use roman numerals. Use arabic figures, a half larger than the script, for all numerical expressions.

Library abbreviations

Size Notation.

FOLD SYMBOL.	SIZE LETTER.	OUTSIDE HEIGHT.
Never use for size.	Never use for fold.	in centimeters.
48°	F ^e	Up to 10
32°	T ^t	10 " 12.5
24°	T	12.5 " 15
16°	S	15 " 17.5
12°	D	17.5 " 20
8°	O	20 " 25
4°	O	25 " 30
f°	F	30 " 35
	F ⁴	35 " 40
	F ⁵	40 " 50
	F ⁶	50 " 60

For all books over 35cm high the superior figures show in which 10cm of height the book falls, e. g., F8 is between 70 and 80cm high.

Prefix nar. if width is less than $\frac{3}{5}$ height.

" sq. " more " $\frac{3}{4}$ "

" ob. " more than height.

These dividing lines will be remembered by the three threes $\frac{3}{3}$, $\frac{3}{4}$, $\frac{3}{5}$.

ACTUAL SIZE METHOD.

Give all sizes in cm (for great accuracy add decimals), leaving the old symbols and names, 8° and Octavo to indicate fold only. Give height first, followed by h, or by x and width, e.g., 23^h or 23 x 14. 23^h means between 22 and 23, i. e., in 23^d cm. All measures are taken outside the cover. Width is from hinge to edge not including the round. To measure paper or letter-press prefix p(aper) or t(ype) to figures, including in type neither folio nor signature lines; e.g., 23x14, p22x14, t17x10, 8° describes a book with size of cover, of paper, of letter-press, and fold.

Library Colors.

The day colors are used, e. g., on Inspection Shelves, to mark by a colored thread the day on which each book is to go to its regular place in the library; or, they mark the day of a loan or mem., if the slips used are changed daily, as in some libraries. They are:—

Sn.	M.	Tu.	W.	Th.	F.	St.
Pink.	Blue.	Green.	White.	Red.	Fawn.	Salmon.

The language colors used, e. g., in bindings are:—

- | | |
|--------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1. American, Light Brown. | 6. Spanish, Olive. |
| 2. English, Dark Brown. | 7. Latin, Light Green. |
| 3. German, Black. | 8. Greek, Dark Green. |
| 39. Minor Teutonic, Dark Blue. | 91. Minor Aryan, Light Blue. |
| 4. French, Red. | 92. Semitic, Yellow. |
| 5. Italian, Maroon. | 93-99. Hamitic, etc., Light Drab. |

ABBREVIATIONS FOR BINDINGS.

bds.	boards	dk.	duck	rox.	roxburgh
buck	buckram	mor.	morocco	rus.	russia

Bibliography of catalog rules.

- 1750 Francke, J; Michael. "Jam de consilio et dispositione hujus catalogi, de causis item, unde natum omne hoc institutum, breviter exponam." (see his Catalogus bibliothecae Bunavianae. 1750-56. v. 1. pref. p. 6-14.)
This preface is valuable for the minute explanation given of the extent to which "analyticals" have been carried in the body of the catalog. "This systematic catalog according to subjects is a masterpiece not to be surpassed," says Ebert. C: A. N.
- 1761 Audiffredi, Giovanni Battista. "Ratio qua indicem conscribendum esse constitueramus." (see his Bibliothecae Casanatensis catalogus, 1761, v. 1, pref. p. 10-18.)
A full explanation of the "rules" followed in making "this unsurpassed model of an alphabetical catalog according to the names of authors." But A. often takes the liberty of changing the wording of titles. C: A. N.
- 1790 Kayser, Albrecht Christoph. Über die manipulation bey der einrichtung einer bibliothek & der verfertigung der bücherverzeichnisse. 18 + 123 p. D. Bayreuth 1790.
Gives illustrated directions for putting up movable shelves and for numbering and locating books, rules for cataloging and alphabetizing, and a form for shelf-list. Puts all books in two classes: where author is known, and anonymous. Discusses double titles and how anonymous books should be entered. C: A. N.
- 1811 Ebert, F; Adolph. Die erfodernisse des alphabetischen katalogs. (see his Über öffentliche bibliotheken besonders deutsche universitätsbibliotheken. 1811. p. 40-46.)
- 1829 [Chaillot, P;] Manière de faire le catalogue d'une grande bibliothèque. (see his Manuel du libraire. 1829. p. 17-34.)
- 1829 Schrettinger, Martin. Versuch eines vollständigen lehrbuchs der bibliothek-wissenschaft... 2 v. D. Mün. 1829.
Rules for author & subject catalogs with specimen pages. Dziatzko notes an edition in 1808
- 1834 Namur, J; P; [The catalogue.] (see his Manuel du bibliothécaire. 1834. p. 61-95.)
- 1834 Schrettinger, Martin. Anleitung zur verfertigung eines alphabetischen namen-kataloges. (see his Handbuch der bibliothek-wissenschaft. 1834. p. 43-85.)
A very elaborately classified hand-book of library economy. C: A. N.
- 1836 Richter, Benedikt. Von der herstellung der ordnung. (see his Kurze anleitung eine bibliothek zu ordnen & in der ordnung zu erhalten. 1836. p. 2-38.)
Gives 14 numbered rules; discusses these, and other cataloging problems in 20 sections; folded plates of forms. C: A. N.
- 1839 Hesse, Leopold A; Constantin. (L. A. Constantin, pseud.) Des catalogues. (see his Bibliothéconomie. 1839. p. 95-130.)
New ed. 1841; Ger. tr. Lpz. 1840.
- 1840 Hesse, see 1839.
- 1841 British museum. Rules. (see its Catalogue of printed books. 1841. v. 1, pref. p. 5-9.)
The famous 91 rules compiled by Panizzi, T; Watts, J. Winter Jones, J. H. Parry & E; Edwards. Adopted by the trustees, 13 J1. 1839.
- (see Nichols, T; Handbook for readers at the British museum. 1866. p. 38-54.)
Nichols arranges the subjects treated of in the rules alphabetically & does not always preserve the exact wording.
- Règles à suivre pour la confection du catalogue du Musée Britannique; [traduites par Olivier Barbier.] (see Bulletin du bibliophile. 1845. p. 299-308, 338-347.)
- [Rules tr. into Portuguese.] (see Ramiz-Galvao, B; F. Bibliothecas publicas de Europa. 1874.)
- Such portions of [these rules] as appear likely to be of benefit to readers in cases of more than ordinary difficulty. (see Sims, R; Handbook to the library of the British museum. 1854. p. 91-95.)
Extracts from 18 rules are given.
- Rules for the compilation of the catalogue, as revised & codified to J1. 1862. (see Stevens, II; Catalogue of American books in the British museum. 1866.)
- 1841 Hesse, see 1839.

These are the A. L. A. Rules, as applied and enlarged in the Library School. They were in daily use by a large force of catalogers, and under revision for three years; we then printed and used two years, as a text book in the School. They are now brought out with many additions, illustrations, and clearer statement of points that caused difficulty to learners. It is intended to make these rules the best possible, and wherever improvement in statement or illustration is suggested or discovered, it will be incorporated in the next edition.

Library School

Accession Book Rules

With sample pages

A. L. A. Standard Accession-book.

First of all records to be filled, and by no means last in importance, is the book of accessions, the history of the growth of the library. To this the librarian turns for final reference in doubtful cases. Here is the complete story of each volume, fully told, but in the most compact form. It is the official indicator for the whole collection. Each line is a separate pigeonhole, in which, if not exactly the book, all the condensed facts about the book are placed. Thence they are never removed; they are not stolen, or loaned, or condemned, or withdrawn, or sent to the binder, or lost. The card is never misplaced, the entry does not mysteriously disappear, a new edition never supersedes. Once written, "it is enough," till the paper grows thin with wear and the binding crumbles with age or the ink-lines entirely fade out of ken. He may turn to his book of accessions to learn what, and where, and when, and whence, and how much, and feel sure of his answer. A well-made accession-book has an element of mathematical exactness unknown to any other catalog. It is the editio princeps.

Every volume has a line, and the book is thus an indicator for the entire collection. By this complete, unchangeable record the additions for every day, week, month, and year are shown at a glance; also the total number of volumes which the library has had; and its present number by subtracting the total withdrawn and lost. This book is the most permanent of library records. There is no danger of losing or misplacing entries, as sometimes happens in card catalogs, nor of being compelled to rewrite them, as often happens in the shelf list.

The name catalog should not be applied to the accession-book or to the shelf list, but is restricted to the author, title, and subject catalogs, made primarily for the use of readers, while these are chiefly for official use. Commonly "accession" is used also as an active verb. Some object to this, and prefer entry-book and "to enter;" or record-book and "to record" or register and "to enter." "To register" confuses with the registration of readers. Additions or addition-book and "to add" is perhaps best, as entry on this record is technically the only way to "add" a book.

For this essential book many forms have been used, but the best features of all were finally combined in the A. L. A. Model, made by a committee of experts who compared thuroly all the various forms collected, made and tested samples, and finally agreed on all the details of materials, ruling, printing, and binding.

The double page is divided by double lines into three groups. First on the left, after the date of addition, are the three numbers assigned by each library, viz., accession, class or shelf, and book, followed by the volume number. Next come author, title, and imprint entries, which belong alike to every book of the edition regardless of any library. Lastly come the notes of binding, source, cost, changes, loss, re-binding, sale, etc, this third group like the first pertaining solely to this copy and library: or in brief, the line is filled with the title, preceded by the special library numbers, and followed by the special library notes.

The desirability of the location number in the accession-book has never been questioned, but the frequent changes in that number as ordinarily used made its use impracticable. The best managed libraries now assign permanent numbers to their books, so that they may be called for from the oldest edition of the catalog as readily as from the latest. With such a system it is a great convenience to refer directly to the shelf where the book may be found without consulting intermediate catalogs, also to glance down the column of numbers and see in what proportion the various departments, as indicated by those numbers, are receiving additions. The decision of the A. L. A. Committee was unanimous in favor of these columns, for it is believed that every library will sooner or later adopt a relativ location and so need them.

The old arrangement had the volume column with the other imprint entries on the second page. Here, the volume immediately precedes the author column, and at the first glance it is apparent what the entry is; e. g., v. 47, Harper's Magazine, is vastly more convenient than to follow across an entire page to the former place of the volume, with the attendant danger, both in entering and consulting, of getting on the line above or below, and thus making serious blunders. Practical use will convince those doubtful of the utility of the change. A still stronger reason is, that the volume-number is an essential part of the call-number or press-mark by which the book is found, and it is inconvenient to have the first part of this number at the beginning of the long line of entries, and the last part at the other end.

The colored lines help the eye in passing across the page, following one or two above or below, and thus avoiding the danger of getting off the line in crossing the fold.

It is economy to have a leather or canvas cover for the accession book while it is being filled. The cover is readily transferred to the next volume and lasts for many years, and as the volumes are filled they come out fresh and clean for preservation on the shelves, while without the cover they become very shabby and soiled in the course of necessary handling while entering 5,000 or 10,000 volumes.

It is cheaper to use the book with 10,000 lines for a library that expects to attain that number of volumes within any reasonable time; and for libraries of over 20,000 it pays to have a wood leger case with partitions making a pocket for each book, to preserve it safely and conveniently. A steel leger clip should also be used, to save needless handling in finding the place for current entries.

RULES FOR ENTERING.

In the following rules a choice of two or more ways is given in several cases. Each user should, before making the first entry, read these rules thru carefully and cancel all the forms mentioned, except those to be used, and add neatly in manuscript any added rules that seem desirable, and a "List of special abbreviations used in this book," which will show names of agents, funds, etc., local in character, but occurring so often as to need contraction.

This done, a glance at the preface will for all time show what the rule was for entering in that volume, and explain any abbreviations not on the printed list.

1. Enter each book immediately after it is collated and agreed with order-book and bill.

a. The official business record of additions should be kept as strictly up to date as a cash account. If more books come in than can be written up at once, and some are wanted in special haste, they may be entered first, but under no circumstances should leave the library til properly added. Once bearing the accession-number, other facts are readily found; but a book without this guide is easily lost or confused with books from other sources or coming in on other dates. The accession-book corresponds to the invoice-book of a business house. As a package is opened, collate it with order-book and bill, to see that it is what was ordered, that the book is complete and in proper condition, and that the price is right. Check the price on bill, and enter it on order record, thus "agreeing" them. Then, if correct, enter the book at once on the invoice or accession-book. If incorrect or imperfect, do not enter it at all, for this fact decides that it is not to be "added" to the library

b. Pictures, statuary, maps, and all articles added to the library should be accessioned and numbered, so as to record the date, source, cost, and any other items of interest. Cards may also wisely be added under the names of artist and subject in the catalogs. It is well to have a special book of additions for these articles, if they are likely to be numerous; otherwise 100 or more numbers may be saved in a block at the front or back of the accession-book, thus keeping these peculiar articles together. To distinguish them and their numbers from books, prefix A, marking the first work of art A 1, and so on, the last number showing the extent of the collection. If wisht, a similar list for scientific specimens can be made under S 1, for maps under M 1, etc.

c. Maps, charts, etc., not in book form are stampd in the lower right corner, or near the title of the map. In the size column, length and bredth are given in cm; e. g., 41 x 52 cm.

2. Use all the standard library abbreviations in all entries.

These include dates, authors' forenames, place, size, binding, etc. See Library Abbreviations appended to these rules for full lists. So many facts are given in so little space, that it is important to save room by using abbreviations; and, as only those familiar with them use this book, the objection against their use in public catalogs does not hold good. All obvious contractions may be used in this book, specially in titles; e. g., "geog." for geographical, "hist." for history, "biog.," etc., etc. The compact L. B. dates are best for all library uses.

3. Give day, month, and year in the upper left margin of each left-hand page, and the day and month before the first entry of each day.

The running date at the top is used in turning to find books by dates. It applies to all entries til a new date is prefix to the accession number. If a whole page or more are received the same day, the date in top margin is enough. Sometimes only a single book is added, but its date must be given as carefully as for the pageful, for dates, like other figures, are almost worthless if not exact. This date shows when the book came into the library; and, if the accessions were written up daily, it would also be the date of entry. A large number coming at once should be entered under the same date, to show that they came together, even if the entry takes several days. It is less account what day the line is written, than what day the book was received into the library. Some however give the date of entry rather than reception when different, as being easiest. Others note both dates. This shows one reason for strict observance of Rule 1. If delay is necessary put the date on the cover where it will be covered by the book-plate, unless the order clerk puts, as he ought, the date on the inner margin of the first recto. If books accumulate they should be kept in order of reception; and, if any are specially wanted before the others, the lines may be counted off so as to accession in proper order.

4. Give to each volume the next consecutive number on the first blank line of the accession-book, and enter this number on the lower margin of the first recto, after the title page of each volume received, and never assign the same number to another volume, even if the original be lost, sold, exchanged, or condemned, and an exact duplicate obtained.

a. An accession-number is given each separate volume, and not to works, or sets, or lots, or series, or collections. Numbering works, in however many volumes they may chance to be, always leads to confusion. The last number should show how many volumes the library has received from the beginning. Books are often issued in parts and at intervals, like periodicals. If an effort is made to number books or works, rather than volumes, the first volume received in continuation makes trouble; e. g., v. 4 comes in to-day and should be numbered 1347; but v. 1, 2, and 3 are numbered 975. That entry must be found and altered to show that v. 4 is here. When v. 5 comes in, it must be again altered, and so on to the end. Such constant changes and erasures make a slovenly book, and are sure to beget confusion.

b. To number each lot as it comes, without trying to keep all the volumes of a set together, is a little better, as it saves changes; but, if an accession-book is kept at all, it is best to keep it properly, and let it show what it professes—the additions of each day in the exact order of their reception, without classification in any form.

c. In assigning call-numbers or shelf-marks by which readers call for what they want, books, and not volumes, are numbered. In the accession-book, volumes, not books, bear the number.

d. The rule gives a separate line to each volume. Some catalogers have put sets of 50 or 60 volumes all on one line. The only gain is a little paper; for the apparent saving of labor proves no economy in the end. The entries, if the same, are dittoed with labor too trifling for mention. One serves for the whole line, instead of dittoing each word; and even this is done only once in the life of the book. A single accession-book has 10,000 lines, or pigeon-holes for 10,000 distinct volumes. Trial of various plans proves it best to assign one of these pigeon-holes or lines across the book to each volume.

e. The rule assigns a given line to a given volume, and forbids its use for any other than that identical volume. There is no trouble then in recording titles, imprints, cost, source, binding, etc., for the different volumes of a set. If any volume is lost, or re-bound, or requires any note or comment to preserve its history and the record of its present state, the way is perfectly simple. If two or more volumes are put on a single line, confusion is sure to arise sooner or later, while by this rule any fact concerning any volume can be entered and found with the least possible labor.

f. Some libraries in replacing a lost book give it the same accession-number as the original. This is convenient and best for shelf-numbers, but is all wrong for accession-numbers. Lost books often come back after many years, and some day a wearisome effort to agree accounts discloses two books bearing the same accession-number. A book put in the library to-day in place of one lost five years ago was added to-day, and not at the time of the first purchase. It is e. g., the 1374th volume added to the library, and is to take the place of 975, which some one has lost.

g. Pamphlets not previously accessioned, when bound, are entered the same as new books, on the date when they come in from the bindery, which is the time of their reception as books. In the source column the word "Binding," in place of the agent's name, shows that the pamphlets had been in the library, but not entered.

h. In binding together two or more books already accessioned, the number of the first may be retained as the number of the collection, as it is the identical book, and all of it, with additions. In the Remarks column opposit each of the other volumes enter "Bound in No.——" with date.

i. This number as soon as assigned is stamp't on the first recto after the title. When the book is re-bound, the number is preserved for immediate reference or identification after the book comes back from the binder. This is the most convenient place for this number, after the title itself, which it would deface, and the reverse of the title where the ink often shows thru or blots, and where it is harder to get a smooth surface for stamping. Even if given on the book-plate, it is repeated here as the plate is lost in re-binding.

j. If a numbering machine is used, stamp the accession number on the back of main author and subject card bottom-side up, so as to be read from the front when lock't in the catalog drawers, or crosswise of the back on the reverse of the upper left corner of the front. This number on the card often saves a double reference, and, the machine being set, it is no appreciable labor to give the number wherever wanted. On the back it takes no space available for title or notes, and is just as convenient, if stamp bottom-side up. When at the accession machine it is not known how many cards will be written, so only the one main author and one main subject card is stamp. This is also an advantage, in that a card not stamp on the back is thus recognized at a glance as an "added entry" or secondary card. The numbering machine, tho costly at first, is a real economy in a library, where it saves its cost in time of clerks and catalogers, beside giving compact printed numbers of the highest legibility.

k. Numbers when in column are quicker to write and easier to read if only the last two digits are given except for each 10th number. For 60c. a 1000 extra, the book can be had with the numbers all printed in advance. This is much the neatest and in the end the cheapest way.

l. Numbers cannot be printed in advance if dates of entry or receipt of books are given on a separate line. This is sometimes done because a blank line (with only the date in the center) above and below the list of books received together sets them off distinctly as a group by themselves. This plan, however, besides making the very desirable printed numbers impracticable, breaks up the uniformity of numbers beginning each page, and reference is less ready. By our rule of a line to a number, and dates in the left margin, every page begins with an even 20, and the eye is greatly helpt in quick reference.

5. Enter the class, book and volume numbers as soon as assigned, in ink if permanent, in pencil if liable to alteration.

a. Some libraries are so numbered, or liable to so frequent changes in their shelf-numbers or press-marks, that it is best to give only volume-numbers, which remain fixt. Others give the press-marks in pencil, so that they can be readily altered. The columns can be left blank if the system does not admit of their satisfactory use. They are of very great value to libraries that have a shelf-number not liable to frequent changes. 1. They refer directly to the shelves and shelf lists without consulting the catalogs; 2. They make analysis and statistics vastly easier. They are the best check to show that all books paid for really get on the shelves, insted of disappearing by accident or design before getting on the inventory [shelf list] and catalogs.

b. If the old fixt system is used, alcove, range, and shelf, insted of class, will go in the first column, for which the heading CLASS was chosen, for its brevity and applicability to almost any system. Nearly all libraries agree in using a book-number between this and the volume-number. Where the alphabetical arrangement is followed wholly or in part, these columns will be used for the words or letters and figures which determine the location of the book. These two columns are left blank till the book is cataloged, class and shelf listed; for it is impossible to give the numbers accurately, till the shelf list is consulted. Even in the alphabetical systems there is a chance that the identical combination has occurred before, and must be differentiated.

c. In the volume column, two volumes bound in one would be entered 1 & 2, 3 & 4, etc. One volume bound in two parts would be entered 1.¹, 1.², etc., each part on a separate line.

d. Give the number of the volume if more than one. If in only one volume, leave this column blank as 1 indicates that it is the first of a set of two or more. Make all entries of facts perfectly definite.

6. Give the author's name and the title, as in the brief-title finding index. (For detailed rules see Library Notes, v 1., p. 111-131.)

a. Space allows only a brief title, and other facts are given with so much fulness that the book is readily identified. If the work is anonymous, leave the AUTHOR column blank, to be filled when authorship is discovered. The line separating author and title is faint, so as to be seen only when looked for to guide in making the title line accurately one under the other. When author's name or title is very long, this line is simply disregarded, but in most entries there will be a little space between the author and the beginning of the title.

b. The form of author's name to be used, or the heading which takes its place in the author column for transactions and various other books, must correspond with the entry in the other catalogs; and, as it must be decided from them, a careless heading should not be written here at the risk of error. With this as with the class number, if in doubt, and the book must be entered at once, leave the author column blank, and fill in after the heading is decided for the other catalogs. A volume of pamphlets is entered under the heading used on the main card with a note; e. g., "& 9 other pam."

7. Give the place, publisher, date, pages, and size, in accordance with rules for full titles, except that more abbreviations may be safely used.

a. If several places or publishers are printed, give only the first named on the title; or the most important if the main publisher is given in large type with fine type names preceding. Some omit the publisher, but it should be once recorded somewhere to help identify each book or find a duplicate if needed. The publisher differentiates two editions of same place and date, and is often used in replacing, tracing, etc. If omitted from all other records, give it here. Leave space between abbreviation for place and publisher, so it shall not look like a name and initials; e. g., L. MacMillan, not L. MacMillan.

b. If something must be omitted to save labor, perhaps the publisher can be spared easiest, or the pages, if given on the cards.

c. Give the date of publication in years of the common calendar, and in Arabic figures. Never, here or elsewhere, use Roman numbers.

✓ d. If it differs more than a year from publication date, always give year of copyright with c prefix. The line headed DATE is wide enough for six figures, so this important item specifying the real date of publication can be added.

e. The extent of a book depends on pages and size, so that both should be given. The paging is the most useful item that can be given in so small space; as it is on the cards it can be filled in with the class and book numbers without looking it up twice. It is one of the most useful items in identifying similar editions. A pamphlet is only a thin book, and is best described by giving paging; e. g., "37 p. O." All the sizes (binding, paper, and type), as well as fold, in case it should be desirable, can be given by interlining, but except in rare books, the size-letter is sufficient. Give the size by the A. L. A. book-size rule. If it is on the line, call it the larger if it has been trimmed in re-binding; if untrimmed call it the smaller. For books paged in fragments, do not subtract, but give the first and last; e. g., p. 613-1120.

f. An admirable help in quick and accurate sizing is Cole's Size Card, published by the Library Bureau. It gives by diagonal lines the proper prefix nar, sq, or ob, without separate measurement. It is kept inside the cover; some mark the size lines inside the front cover of the accession-book or paste in a Cole card, tho it is less handy to lay the book accurately on the card than to insert the card under the cover, which serves as an automatic guide to hold it in exact position.

g. The size of type is rarely given, tho to many an important item in choice of editions for reading. It is a part of size or extent, but is more useful on the catalogs than here.

8. Give the binding material, indicating half binding by prefixing $\frac{1}{2}$, or better a superior²; e. g., ²mor. [±]If the book has leather corners also, $\frac{3}{4}$, or a superior³ will indicate it. [#]If by a famous binder, or otherwise remarkable, note in Remarks.

9. Under SOURCE write the name of the giver, if a gift; the name of the fund if bo't from the income of a special fund; or the name of the firm or library agents, of whom bo't, if from the general fund.

Some give the name of the supplying agents in all cases, prefixing the initials of the fund in the second case. The funds of each library are so well known that the initials are ample, so the column for SOURCE allows room for both agent and fund. Enter at least the initials of the agent in all cases.

10. Under COST give in dollars and cents the actual cost of the book, including exchange on foreign books.

a. A ruling for pounds, shillings and pence is not needed. So few books among the mass in the library will be so billed, that it is waste of space to devote three whole columns to these headings. Even in these cases convenience requires that cost be given in ordinary denominations, so that a moment tells an inquirer the cost of any book. If the exact amount in foreign money must be kept, interline it in the cost column, or better, to allow footing the cost for statistics, enter it in Remarks, next to cost column. If list price is given, it is useless to repeat the net price also in foreign terms.

b. If the list price is recorded, put it at the right of the source column, next to the left ruling of the cost column, using fr, m, and s for francs, marks, or shillings, and unmarkt figures for dollars. If, because of rarity or net list price or special terms from auction or second-hand dealers, the price paid is more or less than usual for a book of that list price, prefix "n" (net) to the cost given, to show it is not an error in entry. Some wisely do not stop to look up list prices, but enter them only when already known.

c. When several volumes are bo't at once, give cost of the series opposit the first entered, followed by a note of the number of volumes included; e. g., v. 4, 5, and 6 of some work come in together, and cost together $13.44. Insted of dividing this up, and entering $4.48 against each volume, make the entry against the first (v. 4) in this way: 3 v. $13.44. Or (a more difficult entry to make neatly), connect the lines of the different volumes by a bracket, and write the cost against the center. For convenience in identifying what came on each bill, the date and total may be given in Remarks opposit the first entry; e. g., on line 10,431 the remark for a bill covering 30 v. would be "To 10,460 is bill of 19 N. $110.⁶²." The date of the bill is always earlier than that of reception. 10,460 shows the line of the last entry included in the bill, as does the remark of the next bill, unless it is for a single volume, and so not recorded. It is often handy to check off special bills in this way, and the labor is trifling to thus indicate the extent of large bills. Mark gifts "g" in cost column, and if cost is known add it in []; e. g., g [1.75]. For convenience in footing amount paid out for books and amount of gifts, it is well to enter the cost value assigned to gifts in red ink, as being more distinct than the [], and showing more grafically the proportion of gifts to each page. Some even write the entire line in red. Give items of cost carefully, thus making the accession-book for all practical purposes the invoice-book.

11. Mark the cost of each book in inner margin of first recto after date of reception, when collating with the bill.

From this place it is copied in the accession-book, and is often found of great convenience in determining value without consulting records or bills. The cost written in the inner corner of some special page agreed on in each library, serves to identify books with labels removed, or covers taken off in binding, or by accident, or by design where theft is intended; but any reader may wish to know the cost, and it is unwise to use it as a detectiv mark, of which the place cannot be told to all interested. A much safer private mark is a perforation with an awl or pin in a secret place; e. g., a pin hole thru the center of the fifth o used in the paging. This can hardly be found by accident or removed, if known, so as not to be detected by an expert.

12. Under REMARKS indicate any re-binding, sale, loss, exchange, withdrawal as duplicate, binding in with another volume, or any change or disposition.

The preceding entries tell what the book was when it came into the library. REMARKS tell of any changes, and of the final disposition in case the book is no longer in its accustomed place. This rule requires less labor than at first appears, and saves more than it costs. When books come in from the bindery, it is a very brief matter to open to their numbers, and note the new dress, with its cost. Then if the volume be lost and the reader wishes to pay for it, there is a means of knowing whether it was in paper as at first bo't for 25 cents, or in half morocco as re-bound, at an added cost of $1. The accession-book is the book of final reference for these technical facts, that appear on no other catalog. The efficient librarian must be able somewhere to refer to everything of the kind, and for this no other record offers so great advantages.

The librarian who will keep an accession-book on the plan above described, will find himself well repaid. It will be in constant requisition, the final authority to which will be referred all doubtful questions regarding the past history or present state of any one or of all his books.

Library School

Shelf List Rules

With sample pages

BY

MELVIL DEWEY M. A.

Director New York State Library; President American Library Association

BOSTON

Library Bureau 146 Franklin St.

1890—

Shelf list rules

These rules have been worked out by long experience in the use of shelf sheets 25 x 20 cm, the size in common use among libraries. Variations necessary for a sheet 10 x 25 cm are specified. A sample page of each size is appended.

ARRANGEMENT OF ENTRIES. Arrange entries as books are arranged on the shelves—first, by class number, treated decimally; second, by book number, arranged (a) alphabetically by the capital letter (b) numerically by numbers following the capital, treated decimally.

NUMBER OF SUBJECTS ON PAGE. In beginning a new shelf list, or a new sheet, never enter more than two subjects on a page, (or one subject on a sheet if 10 x 25 cm sheets are used), thus allowing for intercalation, but leave no lines between book entries.

LARGE SUBJECTS. Begin all divisions like 110, 220, 370, 450, and such sections as 511, 512, etc., also in Literature, 811.49, 813.49, etc., and any subject on which you are likely to have a large number of books, on a new sheet, and leave the rest of the sheet blank, beginning the next subject on a fresh sheet.

✓ PERIODICALS. In case of periodicals and transactions of societies like 052, 305, 906, etc., put not more than ~~two~~ entries on a page of periodicals still being published. Leave room for accession numbers of volumes to be added, arranging these in three columns, thus:—

36723-4	v. 1-2	50002	v. 14	69467	v. 26
44321	v. 3	68876	v. 15	73125	v. 27

If 10 x 25 cm sheets are used, put one entry on a sheet, and arrange accession numbers in four columns.

CLASS NUMBER. Write class number in blue ink on upper line after "class," and, if a second subject occurs on the same page, put its class number on outside margin of sheet on the line above entries to which it belongs.

BOOK NUMBER. Write book number in its column in black ink, and in heavier figures to make it more prominent.

ACCESSION NUMBER. Write accession number in its column in black ink, with — between inclusive figures; e. g. 3342-7.

✓ SIZE. If a book is over O size, put its size, Q, F, etc., in red ink in upper right corner of space belonging to accession number. If size is incorporated in the book number, no other size designation is needed.

VOLUMES. Put number of volumes, if more than one, in "vol." column in black ink; if the library contains part of a set, write; e. g. v. 1, or, v. 2-6; write also 2 in 1; 6 in 3; v. 9¹, v. 9². In case of annuals where there is no volume number, use the year in volume column.

SPECIAL LOCATION. When necessary to indicate location of books removed from their regular place, write in blue ink in upper right corner of book number column "Ref.," or number of room, or other needed designation.

INDEX VOLUMES. Place an index volume if unnumbered at the beginning of a set, instead of intercalating after the last volume covered by the index, and mark it with volume number o. If more than one, mark them thus, o¹, o², o³. Add in title column, years or volumes covered; e. g. Index, 1840-50.

SEVERAL COPIES. When there is more than one copy of a book, give a separate line to each, indicating the number of the copy in red ink in volume column; e. g. 49725 cop. 1 49772 cop. 2, unless the accession numbers are consecutive; e. g. 33968-69 2 cop. If the work has more than one volume, write number of copy in volume column above volume number.

AUTHOR. Write author's surname in black ink in its column, using no punctuation. Do not give forename except to distinguish from another author of same name in same class number. In case of two joint authors write surname of each; if more than two, write surname of first and "& others."

TITLE. Write brief title in its column in black ink with no punctuation. This title can be shortened from title page, or taken from running title, or from back of book, if the book is known by that title. If the shelf list is to be used chiefly as a stock-taking book, use binder's title. If used mainly as a subject catalog, use any well-known title or a shortening of the title page, taking great care in abbreviating title that it may be at once clear, short, and comprehensive. Add in briefest form the name of series if well known, (e. g. Am. men of let.)

EDITIONS. In case of two editions of the same book, add date of each, or number or name of edition, or editor's surname after title. In the classics add editor's surname.

NEW ENTRIES UNALPHABETED. In adding to a shelf list leave one line vacant after the continuous alphabet, and add new entries as they come, with no attempt at alphabeting. As often as expedient rewrite the sheet and combine into one alphabet.

DATES. Put on upper margin of each sheet the date when it is started; e. g. 13 Je 83. When withdrawn add after a dash the date of rewriting; e. g. 13 Je 83-17 Ap 90.

OLD SHEETS. Arrange withdrawn shelf sheets in order of class numbers and save for reference.

CHANGED NUMBERS. If the class number or any part of it is changed after the book is shelf-listed, do not erase entry, but draw a red line through it, and write in red ink in author column the new class and book number, and enter like a new book in its new place, changing the numbers on book, accession book, and all catalog entries. If book number alone is changed, draw red line through it, and write in red ink the new number above; and if the entry is in an alphabet of more than 10 items, cancel the whole entry by a red line and reënter as if a new book; this helps in tracing the book. When the sheet is rewritten, leave it out.
